

The REFORMA Northeast Chapter is proud to present the recipient of the

2024 Ismael Alicea
Professional Development Award

To encourage and support participation at the 2024 ALA Annual Conference

Jessica Agudelo

Youth Collections Coordinator, NYPL

Congratulations!

Friday, June 14, 2024
20th Annual Joint Mini-Conference
The New York Public Library
Bronx Library Center
310 East Kingsbridge Road
Bronx, NY 10458

The IAPD Award provides financial assistance (in the amount of $600.00) to attend the Annual American Library Association Conference this June 2024 in San Diego, California.

Thank you for your commitment to your professional development and promoting library and information services with the Latino and Spanish Speaking community.

About Jessica

Jessica Agudelo is the Youth Collections Coordinator at BookOps, overseeing the development of the children's and young adult collections across 150 branch locations of the New York Public Library and Brooklyn Public Library. Since joining REFORMA, Jessica has been an active member of the Northeast chapter, serving as Secretary for the 2020-2022 term. She chaired the 2021 Pura Belpré Award committee, and is currently a co-chair for REFORMA's Children's and Young Adult Services Committee.

Thank you for your